NATO: Basic disagreement between the US and the Europeans--especially Bonn--over policy guidelines for the use of tactical nuclear weapons may become sharper.

25X1

The ministers agreed to a US proposal for a more complete review of options for tactical nuclear usage and a more searching inquiry into the follow-on use of such weapons. It was understood that the guidelines, if so revised, would be approved at the next NPG ministerial meeting, to be held in the US in November.
